LARGEST GROSS INCOME IN NEW HAVEN'S HISTORY Increase of Ten Millions Over Earn ings of Preceeding Year.

The annual report of the New Hain road is issued in advance of the annual meeting of the stockholders which will be held Wednesday. The which will be held Wednesday. The report shows the largest gross income in the company's history.

The company earned from operations, $76,311,652, an increase of $10,-392,389 over the preceding year and a gain of about $7,700,000 over the best preceding year, which was 1913. The statement says this result was achieved in the face of much labor, unrest, resulting in 57 separate strikes on the company's lines, and also under discouraging operating conditions

Operating expenses absorbed $51,-078,357, leaving a net income of $25,-233,295 before taxes were paid, a gain of $3,980,655. The lines carried 28,-285,411 tons of freight, which was 4,-443,388 tons more than the year before, and the $2,245,385 passengers carried were 4,073,687 more than the company accommodated in 1915.

President Elliott informs stockholders in his statement that the eighthour law will cause an increase of expenses of $1,500,000 to $2,030,000 a year, depending on the way the statute is interpreted. Discussing the labor organizations which were active in having the law passed, he says: in the last fiscal year they received five billions.

The people of the cities are beginning to realize more now the help of farmers.

The Eight Hour Law.

We have the workingmen's compensation bill. I wonder how my friend stands on that bill. Why did he dodge the eight hour law, a measure which surely kept this country from starvation, a measure in which President Wilson took action on the side of the common people? And the candidate for the republican party says he would have insisted on arbitration. No, friends, that strike would have come, but we had the man of the hour, a man who had the workingman at his heart.
